COURTY ELECTIONS.

Tious of Course John M. Prince On Collectional Astronomy

It is understood that upon this state of things three different opinions have supporters in the state. They are:

1. That the terms of the present into of the offices of county judge, equaty eleck, and the offers allows po-fitted to employ on the first Mindley, in mber, 1881, and that their med after the first Monday in November, 1881, by the people.

2. That the terms of the present inrumbents of the offices before mentioned expire on the first Monday of December, 1881, but, on the laws fixing offices by the people and the meaner of election by the people at the time decignated in the repealed laws is impossible; and, therefore, the vacancies is each offices which it is claimed will exist after the first Monday in Desember

1861, must be filed by appointments, to be unde by the governor.

3. That notwicketsucking the provisions of the nighth section of the senth acticle of the constitution of 1874, which fixes the tenure of the effices of county judge and county clark at four rears, these will be no vacancies in the offices referred to in the year 1881, to tive appointment.

In my view of the case, the first and second propositions have no support

PRAYING FOR THE PRESIDENT.

the Stricker Chief in Beentur,

In our last evening's edition was published Governor Cultom's proclamation, issued on the 4th as follows:

issued on the 6th as follows:

"In harmony with the action of the Gevurnous of neveral states of the Union, and in response to the Sections of the people of tele state, I, Shelby E. Cullom, Governor of Illimon, so make this predemation requesting that special meetings be held in the victions places of public working on Toseday, the att inst., for prayer to Eim who holds in His hands the dectales of men and of Mations, that our Mation's impending calantity—the threatened loss of its chief amgistrate by vicleton—may be averted, that Frantient Gerfield may be restored to health; and tojamplore the divice bleating upon our country and state."

In compliance with the above procinmation a general prayer meeting was held in the lecture room of the First Presbyterina church this force on at 9 o'clock, which was conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Prestley. The room was nearly filled with people from various congregations, and the service was very impressive and touching in character. The Bible essons read embraced the first part of the second chapter of first Timothy, the latter part of the 5th chapter of the general epistle of James, and the first part of the 8th chapter of Issiah The titles of the gospel songs sung were, "Go Bury Thy Sorrow," "We Need Thee Every Hour," "The Great Physician," "The Lord Will Provide," and similar appropriate selections. Feeling prayers for the speedy recovery of the president were offered by Rev. Prestley, Elder J. W. Tyler, Rev. the girl in the act of striking one of the Rogers, and W. R. Scruggs, J. H. Lewis, I. J. Davis, D. H. Hellman and R. P.

At the Christian church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock special prayer service was held, in which Dr. Davies, State Evangelist Haynes and others participated.

THIS EVENING. We are requested by Rev. Masgrove to announce that a special prayer service will be held at Stapp's Chapel this evening at 7:30 c'clock. The members of the congregation and the public generally are requested to be present. A service of prayer for the President will be held in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association this evening at 7 30. All christian people, both ladies and gentlemen, are cordially invited to come and join in the service. J. R.

He loses his vary fortune and he historif is him, runs him into debt, and a heavy villain endeavors to complete the rain. By a happy desougment in the last act the nenitent wife confesses her love for her abused husband, and knools at his feet. Bhe is forgiven, is folded to the bosom of her husband and apparently all is well; but suddenly the villain, finding his game is up, and he is thwarted in his purposes, steps up behind the happy women and stabs her to the heart as the Spanish wife did her husband in the prologue, and thus the awful curse is fulfilled and the house of Iredell made utterly wretched and deaolate. The leading part was taken by Henrietta Vaders, who possesses marked talent as an emotional actress. The charactors of Lady Ince and Benirice are extremely difficult, but Miss Vaders has studied them well and deserved the generous applause she received. She was fairly supported by Mr. Roche, Mr. Chester, Mr. Thompson and others, and the play, though a little too long, ran smooth-ly. The ebstumes were rich and varied and the entertainment undoubtedly gave general satisfaction. PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Nellie Johns Moore, whose present home is at Callao, Peru, had another long and interesting letter about "The Land of Flowers" in Monday's Chicago Times, in which she tells how the Peruvians are ley, included 117 ducks, 100 loaves of highly "favored by Nature's gifts and Stated convocation of Mason Chapter bread and 216 pike. Another Decatur cursed by their own effeminacy." Mrs. No. 21, R. A. Masone, this Tuesday, party, which will be formed in a few Moore writes that Peru imports all her figur, coal, ice, butter, and most of her beef from Chili; all the dry goods and wearing apparel come direct from Europe. Linen is cheaper than in Decatur. American goods sell high in Peru. A $20 American stove sells for $70, and a common glass lamp salls for $19. It would sell for 25 cents here. American furniture sells for about mine times its value. Coal is $18 per ton, and wood, except in small fagots, is not to be had for love or money. In her next letter Mrs. Moore will tell about the internal arrangements and elegancies of Peruvian houses and the way the people live.
